Meeting Summary:

Managing Director's Report

The Executive Team reported on the RA+BP's participation in the Seton Hall Marketing and Research class and Kean University's Public Relations Class. Recommendations are being assessed and implemented when possible.

City beautification efforts are ongoing. The addition of a downtown maintenance position has been very valuable. Julio Mercado has assisted in setting up the 15 min Pick Up Parking spots throughout the downtown, continues to monitor lamp post outages, cleans and maintains the public spaces, as well as snow removal when necessary.

The Rahway's Own 2020 virtual event was very successful. Matt Milligan, a past Rising Star from Rahway High School and CEO of his personal production company, MattQ Productions, was hired by the RA+BP to execute the event. We will continue to work with Mr. Milligan in the future, and as a gift of gratitude, he will be redesigning the Rahway's Own website.

New Business

The RA+BP reported on upcoming events such as the Soup Stroll, Restaurant Week, the Rahway's Own scavenger hunt and the Martin Luther King events. The City and RA+BP received much positive press around the Soup Stroll and Restaurant Week.

The RA+BP will be applying for a Main Street America Designation from the Department of Community Affairs. This will assist the RA+BP with grant opportunities.

The RA+BP along with the City Administration are launching a second round of Rahway CARES. This will be a grant instead of a forgivable loan and the money will be paid from previously collected SID taxes that had been held for the duration of the litigation and were released at the conclusion of the lawsuit. The first round of CARES forgivable loans were disbursed from this money.

There is approximately $315,000 remaining. We intend to invest as much of this as we can in the businesses that need assistance. If there is money left over, we will issue a Rahway CARES III. If more than this amount is requested, the City will supplement.

1. Businesses will be able to apply for a maximum of $4000- with different amounts allowed in each category (See breakdown below)
